

Veronica Kirin
Author | Speaker | Entrepreneur Coach

 <http://veronicakirin.com>

 veronica@veronicakirin.com

Veronica Kirin is a serial entrepreneur, a business coach for LGBTQ women, and a dynamic speaker who is energetic, honest, and speaks to each audience member as if it were just them in the room.

The Moment of Empowerment

Veronica's work to empower other women as an Entrepreneur Coach developed her theory and title of her talk, "The Moment of Empowerment". This talk teaches listeners of a simple act that each can do to empower anyone they meet.

Self Care for Entrepreneurs

A workshop based on Veronica's personal experience with PTSD and the pop culture version of entrepreneurship – you can sleep when you're dead – to teach participants how to leverage their energy to develop a life-long business.

Network Like A Ninja

A workshop that teaches attendees how to confidently walk into a room of strangers and walk away with new connections, plus how to leverage one's network to achieve anything you want.

Forbes

girls inc.

Testimonials

"Veronica Kirin nails it on stage - 'By listening to your inner light, you are empowered to walk your true path.' This is a truth everyone needs to hear, especially in our world today where stopping to just be is supposedly difficult to fit into your schedule. From her life story, it's clear that Veronica has listened to her Inner Light and found her path. If you're looking to inspire your audience to slow down, enjoy life, be connected with self, and then find their own empowered way - Veronica is the speaker for you! Everyone in your audience will be touched by her energy."

— Shannon Elhart, founder of The Healing Journey

