

Courtesy Photo

Novi High at Carnegie Hall!

The Novi High School Festival Singers, comprised of the Novi Singers and Concert Choirs, performed on May 19 at Carnegie Hall, New York. Under the direction of internationally renowned conductor John Rutter, the choirs sang "Requiem," which was written by Rutter. The performance was the highlight of a five-day trip to New York, which included touring, sightseeing, shopping and intense workshops.